Murder at Pahranagat!

From the Reese River Reveille we learn that two men went to Pahranagat some time since with a drove of horses, and camped in one of the valleys near those mines. Their names were Robert Knox and S. B. Vail. Knox was missed awhile ago, and Vail accounted for his absence in a contradictory manner, which gave rise to suspicions. Knox was known to have money. Vail left those parts and traveled towards Austin with his horses and a lot of stock stolen from the settlers in Southern Utah; and was followed there by some of the owners of the stolen stock. After his departure from Pahranagat a search for the body of Knox was instituted, and it was found under where Vail had made his bed and slept for over two weeks. He slept on the grave of his victim for over two weeks to elude the suspicion that existed. He was followed to Austin by the Sheriff of Lincoln County, and arrested.

On the night of the 11th inst. he attempted to break jail and escape, and nearly succeeded. On the morning of the 12th he was started for the scene of the murder, in charge of Sheriff Ranney, of Nye County, and Sheriff Mathews, of Lincoln County.

The Mormons.

The following letter from Mark Twain appeared in the Alta California, dated New York, April 19th, 1867:

"The Mormons were holding a grand powwow at Keokuk, when I was there a week ago, the object of which was to devise ways and means of ousting Brigham Young from office, and putting young Joe Smith in his place. Four hundred of the Saints were present, from places in Missouri and Illinois, and young Joe, a simple, well-meaning, and very dull preacher, was with them. They came to town dressed in homely jeans, and bringing horns, and cymbals, and trumpets and all the ungodly paraphernalia of their choir service as I used to hear it performed in the Mormon Church in St. Louis years ago. They are good, honest people, believe thoroughly in their religion, and are earnest in their hope of getting Joe Smith placed at the head of the whole Church. They say they will accomplish it. They call Brigham a wicked imposter and his new-fangled Mormonism a swindle. They claim that polygamy is not a tenet of Genuine Mormonism.

It is strange how this lost tribe has kept its faith through so many years of sorrow and disaster. These are people who were scattered in tents for miles and miles along the roads through Iowa when the Mormons were driven out of Nauvoo with fire and sword, twenty-five years ago. Their heavy misfortunes appealed so movingly to the kindly instincts of the Iowa people that they rescued them from starvation, and gave them food and employment, and gradually they became absorbed into the population and lost sight of—forgotten entirely, in fact, till this Convention of young Joe's called them out, and then from every unsuspected nook and cranny crept a mormon—a mormon who had for many a year been taken for a Baptist, or a Methodist, or some other kind of a Christian."

"But young Joe had better look out, for it has been a well credited rumor in Keokuk for two years or more that Brigham has set a price upon his head and keeps a destroying angel or so on his track all the time, ready to kill him when the opportunity offers. And they say that if these Mormons were to start to Salt Lake, young Joe would never get out of sight of Council Bluffs alive."

HEBREW LEGISLATORS.—There are four Jews in the Prussian Parliament. They are upon what is called the "Liberal" side of the House, and were elected by the "Christian" part of the Commonwealth.

THE Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that a temporary closing of the polls on election day, for dinner or any other purpose, is a violation of law and vitiates the election.

The Picayune has the following: El Corneoce of Matamoras 7th, has the following extracts from a letter dated Monterey 2d: Miramon died from fever which attacked him after being wounded at Queretaro. Castello, Mejia and others were shot according to a letter from creditable persons at San Luis. The most profound silence preserved as to what will be done with Maximillian. It has been said that the City of Mexico was taken by the Liberals at the close of May. The Mexican Imperialist's paper published at Brownsville, pronounces Maximillian's proclamation a forgery, and says it originated with a burlesqueing paper.

The steamer Governor Sharkey sunk this morning. Two hundred and fifty tons of Government freight was aboard at the time, and is doubtless a total loss. Four lives were lost.

The ram Dunderberg made a voyage of speed; she made 16½ miles an hour in the trial trip of yesterday. One mile was ran in four minutes and two seconds, with the screw making 54 revolutions per minute, under 17 pound of steam. She leaves for Europe in about three weeks.

Five distilleries were seized in Brooklyn yesterday, for violation of the revenue law.

New York, June 13.

The Brazillian mail steamer Rio Janeiro of May 28 has advices from the seat of war. Bombarding was kept up, and Baron DeHerval crossed Uraguay and was ready April 14th to continue his march to Upper Parana, with 40,000 men, six canon, three thousand flotillas being equipped in Malta for attack on Paraguayan posts in that province.

The Revolution in the Argentine Republic has ended. Montevedo is closed against vessels from Argentine ports. Communications are forbidden throughout Uraguay. Cholera is diminishing in the Allied army, having made no extra ravages, though an anonymous telegram from Buenos Ayres says 2,700 died in four days, among the small force at Corosen and the Camps Moed. This is regarded as a stock jobbing canard. Cholera is still prevalent at Rasario and Sannichotas, but declined at Corrientes. About 170 deaths are reported in Buenos Ayres on the 22d of April, but deaths since then greatly diminished. Brazillian Assembly will be opened May 15th. The British Minister is negotiating the Pestal treaty with Brazil. The commissioners sent to Bahia to study the sugar-cane disease, have arrived at some practical result in regard to the fast increasing evil. Sixty of the last American emigrants have gone to Esparetis Santo, and the others to San Pale. There may be a good crop at Deposte. At this place a fall of a high mountain buried two houses, and everyone therein.

Mrs. Mary Angell Young is the first living and legal wife of Brigham Young. She is a native of New York, and is reported to be a fine-looking, intelligent woman. She is large, portly, and dignified. He hair is well sprinkled with the frosts of age; her clear hazel eye and melancholy countenance indicate a soul where sorrow reigns supreme. She has been much attached to her husband, and his infidelity has made deep inroads upon her mind. Her deep-seated melancholy often produces flights of insanity, which increase with her declining years.—Harpers Weekly.

The Chaplain of the New York Assembly perpetrated the following pun in prayer: "May men of principle be our principal men."

SOUTHERN RIGHTS.—A Charleston paper thinks that the rights the South obtained by the war were funeral rites.

From Arizona.

From the Miner, published at Prescott, of May 18th, we glean the following:

The cloud resting upon Central Arizona for several months past, owing to the stoppage of the quartz mills, and for other reasons, is passing away. During the present week Mr. Reed, who is satisfied that his process for working sulphurets is a success, will begin operations upon the Sterling mine, which he has leased for two years. The Big Bug Mining Company will also renew operations, with proper facilities for reducing sulpherets. And we are just informed that the Umpqua Company will have their mill running again within a month.

Ranching is attracting unusual attention, and there is a promise of a product of grain threefold as great as that of any previous year. The cost of flour is scarcely ever less than $20 per hundred at this place.

Gen. Gregg is pushing the war against the hostile Indians with vigor and prudence, although much in need of more troops. The mail facilities are at last as they should have been long since, and we are to have frequent and regular communication with the outer world.

On the last trip from Hardyville, Mr. Wicks, the carrier, accompanied by one soldier, was pursued by a band of Wallapais all the way from Wallapai Spring to the Cottonwoods, and had a narrow chance of escape. On Saturday night last, some Indians (supposed to be the same,) stole five splendid mules from the Toll Gate Station. They were the property of W. H. Hardy, and valued at $1,200. They were tied to a wagon and six men were sleeping within a few yards of them.

Capt. Williams, with a large part of the troops from Whipple, is on a scout in the Santa Maria and Williams Fork country, and will be apt to catch some of the Indians that have been troubling the miners on the Fork. We learn that preparations are making for an extensive scout from Camp Lincoln, in conjunction with one from Camp McDowell, for the purpose of destroying the crops of the Apaches.

About 35 men are working the old Walker placers on Lynx Creek, and taking out, on an average, $8 each per day. From the Black Canon placers we have very good reports. We are not informed as to the number of miners at work there, but they are doing fairly. A number of parties are at work on the upper Hassayampa, and making it pay tolerable well.

The Indians lately took 30 mules from a train at Kingston Springs, on the Salt Lake road. The military are in pursuit.

[Paris correspondence of the New York Herald.]

The Mormon Propaganda.

Two princes of Mormondom—Brigham Young, Jr., and his brother, John W. Young—both sons of the Utah prophet and lawgiver, are in Paris. They have just received some fine specimens of cotton, tobacco and other agricultural products of Utah, intended for the grand exhibition; but as yet, I believe, the American commission has not permitted them to open them.

They both state that the emigration this year to Salt Lake will be unusually large, and that it will be made up of a hardy, industrious population, in great part from Norway and Sweden and Germany.

These two princes of Mormondom, who are amiable, intelligent young men, apparently earnestly and devotedly attached to their peculiar principles, have now been some years in Europe, engaged in drumming up recruits and sending them to Utah. The Salt Lake Saints pay the passage of such persons as cannot pay it themselves, with the understanding, of course, that it is to be repaid, and take particular care in making their selections to pick out healthy, hardworking, industrious people, and they are thus filling up their western territory with a population which, in any event, will do much toward developing its resources.

The Messrs. Young say that it is an error to suppose that the "Saints" are opposed to the Pacific Railroad; but that it will be of great service to them in increasing their population. They say that they do not fear from its influence any considerable influx of "Gentiles," as the attractions of Utah are not in any manner sufficiently great to induce persons to go there and settle, unless they were taken there by some other motive than merely earning a livelihood, and think that they must be united with the majority by the tie of a religious faith to make their residence there an agreeable one. Both these young men return soon to Utah.

AN UNVARNISHED TALE ON BREEDING.—An elderly dame who has a weakness for lecturing on Shakspeare and Mormonism and other strong minded topics, came over here last fall from California to hold forth. The old woman proved herself a relentless bore, and was so exerutiatingly unbearable to the male sex that able bodied men fled at her approach. She met her match, however. One day a well known Mormon, here, who is a relentless wag, and whom we will call Jones for the occasion, came into the Salt Lake House where the fair lecturer was for the time located. Madamoiselle F. approached her man, and an introduction was effected. She at once commenced clattering away, but Jones by sheer strategy silenced her gun. He informed her that he had just returned from the lake where he found about a dozen of women in a destitute and starving condition. Horrified at the news her eyes dilated to the proportion of grown onions, her bowels of compassion yearned for her sex, and she "put in her oar" this wise:

"Who are they?"

Jones in a confidential tone audibly whispered "Some of Brigham's wives."

"What were they doing there?" was the next queery.

Jones informed her they had just made their escape from Church Island where they had been condemned by Brigham to make salt during the remainder of their natural lives. She was all curiosity and attention now, and put a question and lent her ears for the answer with as much interest as if her doom was at hand, while Jones was getting more communicative and confidential all the time.

"Why did he condemn them?" she peeringly inquired.

"Kase they didn't bre-e-ed," he squealed in her ear.

"Ah! yes! I see!" she ejaculated. She inquired if there were more on the island for the same offense, and was told there were lots of them. She desired to see the unfortunate prisoners, and asked Jones if he couldn't fix things so that she could go over to Church Island and condole with the female salt-makers. Of course he could, and he agreed to arrange matters for that end.

"Well, then I'll go now!"

"All ri-i-ght!" squeaked Jones, "but look here, if you can't bre-e-e-ed you had better not go, for you will never get back! Better try yourself before you star-r-rt."

We have not heard whether she put herself on trial or not; but she gave Jones a wide berth after the felicitous suggestion.

A NEW PROCESS OF "SHELLING OUT."—Everybody at some time or another during an eventful life, has been somewhat at a loss for a method of compelling knaves to pay old debts. Wilkinson hit on a modus on Sunday night. One William W. Henry had become indebted to him in the trifling sum of $582 72 which insignificant matter he designed to remain unadjusted. He had the wherewith to liquidate, but as he was "off" for Salmon River in the morning, and had closed out business, he purposed to allow that as well as some other matters of debits to remain in statu quo as souvenirs of former friendly and confidential relations. Wilkinson couldn't "see it," and knowing from experience with his man that "neither words nor grass" would do; and that he was going to sleep with a wad of greenbacks he waltzed into Herr Von Henry's room at the Revere House, at an hour when churchyards yawn, and when the good looking merchant Prince was dreshed for slumbers only. Wilkinson gently twitched his nose and ears, and rent his linen, but he didn't come out, as the term goes, but went out like a dart, flew down stairs and "skinned" through the air like a meteor, to the Occidental Hotel; his shirt tail fluttering in the breeze and sticking straight out behind, and making night hideous with his cries of "murder! police! police! murder!" The police came to the plaintive cry of distress issuing from the young man, and went to his aid. They escorted him safely to the City Hall in his thin and tattered raiment, where a change came over the spirit of his dreams, and he forked over the change to Wilkinson, even to to the last cent. He was allowed to depart in peace from the halls of justice, and tarried with us during the night, but with the rising sun he wore away like the morning dew. Salmon-ites and Montana people look out for a "bilk!"

TO THE LADIES.—More goods! more goods to be slaughtered at Sumner & Co.'s Auction & Commission House to-day at 10 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICES.—Advertisements and notices in the local column will be charged for at the rate of fifty cents a line each insertion.

SUNDAY AMUSEMENT.—On Sunday last two women exhibited their pugnacity on Second South street, not many miles from the VEDETTE office. The casus belli is as yet a mystery to us, but whatever their former relations were, at the time we speak of—they were on a war footing. One of the belligerents was armed with a child, and the other with bare arms. There was no rope, no ring and no shieing of castors. These formalities were dispensed with and the fight began. Round first—Bare Arms let out with her bunch of fives and caught 'tother one on the smeller. No claret that we could see. Here some of the male gender offered their mediation and "spiled" the fight.

Strawberries and cream are now the order of the day. Delicious strawberries as large as eggs—almost—are plenty in this city, and for sale at fifty cents a quart. We bought a pint of them—on tick—and know whereof we talk.

THANKS.—Secretary Reed will accept our thanks for a copy of the laws of Utah presented to the VEDETTE office yesterday. We obey the laws!

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS,

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair. Address,

FOR ONE DOLLAR.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers'

JEWELRY ASSOCIATION

Calls your attention to the fact of its being the largest and most popular Jewelry Association in the United States. The business is and always has been conducted in the most candid and honorable manner. Our rapidly increasing trade is a sure guarantee of the appreciation of our patrons for this method of obtaining rich, elegant and costly goods. The sudden stagnation of trade in Europe, owing to the late German war, and the recent disastrous financial crisis in Europe, has caused the failure of a large number of Jewelry houses in London and Paris, obliging them to sell their goods at a great sacrifice, in some instances less than one-third the cost of manufacturing. We have lately purchased very largely of these Bankrupt Goods, at such extremely low prices that we can afford to send away Finer Goods, and give better chances to draw the most valuable prizes, than any other establishment doing a similar business. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and we respectfully solicit your patronage, as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction. During the past year we have forwarded a number of the most valuable prizes to all parts of the country. Those who patronize us will receive the full value of their money, as no article on our list is worth less than One Dollar, retail, and there are no Blanks. Parties dealing with us may depend on having prompt returns, and the article drawn will be immediately sent to any address by return mail or express.

The following parties have recently drawn valuable prizes from the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Jewelry Association, and have kindly allowed the use of their names:

Frederick V. Browne, Esq., Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., piano, value, $450; Miss Anna L. Frost, Waverley Terrace, N. Y. City, Ladies' gold enameled and diamond set watch, value, $300; William B. Emmons, New Orleans, La., sewing machine, value $75; George L. Davenport, Mobile, Ala., silver tea set, value, $200; Miss Lucy Orcutt, Albany, Ill., sewing machine, value, $65; Mrs. Mary J. Downing, Louisville, Ky., gold watch, value, $200; James B. Fowler, Harrisburg, Pa., silver hunting-case watch, value, $75; Rev. William Peyser, Milwaukie, Wis., Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, value $125; J. J. Sinclair, Detroit, Mich., diamond cluster ring, value, $225; Horatio G. Frost, Chicago, Ill., large oil painting, value, $300; Mrs Charlotte E. Howins, Doniphan, Kansas, Chickering grand piano, value, $700, and music box, value, $65.

Many names could be placed on the list, but we publish no names without permission. Our patrons are desired to send us U. S. currency when convenient.

LOUIS A. GARNETT,.....President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr...Chemist and Superintendent

This Company having greatly enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin Made in Forty-Eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.
The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

830 per to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
845 per to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.
865 per to equal San Francisco A. & B. Works return at refining charge of 8 cents. [mar21-3m-is
